

Montana Talking Book Library

Magazine & Newspaper Resources

Cartridge: Magazines recorded on cartridge come through the mail. Loan periods vary from one week to seven weeks depending on the magazine. This is a free service provided by the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS).

BARD: A free service provided by the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS) which permits users to download audio and eBraille books and magazines using a computer or mobile device. <https://nlsbard.loc.gov/mt1a>

Braille: Magazines in Braille come through the mail. This is a free service provided by the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS). Braille magazines do not have a loan period and do not need to be returned.

Newsline™: A free service provided by the National Federation of the Blind. The service permits users to listen to newspapers and magazines over the phone or downloaded them using a computer or mobile device. <https://nfb.org/audio-newspaper-service>
